

San Marino, Huntington Library, HM 19918

Description: ff. i + 220 - Bound, s. XV#^ex#, in calf over bevelled wooden boards; 2 replacement straps to pins on back cover; rebacked; restored by Gertrude Weadock of New York, March 1939. - Written in England; pt. I was possibly copied in the first quarter of the fourteenth century: the calendar and sanctorale, f. 181, include Thomas of Hereford, canonized in 1320, but the calendar still places the feast of the relics on 15 September rather than at the moveable date of the first Sunday after the Translation of Thomas of Canterbury (between 8-14 July); this change of date was established in 1319. Pts. II-IV were written during the fifteenth century. A note added to the calendar at 1 July in the late fifteenth century reads: Obitus iohannis Nuby, katerine uxoris eius et agnetis Nuby et omnium fratrum et sororum istius loci. The volume was n. 398 in a book dealer's catalogue, with the relevant slip now glued to the front pastedown. Acquired with funds of the Friends of the Huntington Library from Scribner in July 1958. - C. W. Dutschke with the assistance of R. H. Rouse et al., Guide to Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts in the Huntington Library (San Marino, 1989). Chronica, 3.
